

About The School...

Arizona School of Classical Ballet trains beginner through professional dancers. The School has a mission to provide dance education for students who demand the best in dance training. The Program offers classes in a variety of dance forms. The Ballet syllabus is based on the Russian method of teaching Classical Ballet. The legendary Russian School is famous for its superb technique and pure style of performance. In addition, the School also offers private music lessons. It is instilling the true musicality which is such an essential quality for a ballet performer. The distinguished faculty features experienced teachers who have enjoyed successful careers in dance.

Summer Intensive 2012

Arizona School of Classical Ballet invites you to join us for two weeks of intensive training in different forms of dance. Students will have a great opportunity to study with an international faculty as well as meet new friends. Summer Workshop's presentation for Junior – Advanced and viewing classes for preparatory levels will conclude the course. Please call the school at 602-494-3400 or visit azclassicalballet.com for details.

Students ages 3 through pre-professional will be placed in a level appropriate to her or his previous dance experience and age. Placement classes will be held from February 1st through May 7th, 2012 for non-ASCB students age 8 to 13. Video audition is acceptable; deadline for video submission is May 7th, 2012. Please call the school 602-494-3400 for video audition requirements.
